1. This Office action is in response to amendment filed 14 September 2004, which papers have been placed of record in the file.

2. Claims 9, 13-14, and 16-17 are allowed over the prior art of record. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to disclose or suggest a method for registering a defect map within a hard drive comprising adding said logical address of said sector to a number of defect sectors up to said sector to obtain a physical address of said sector when the number of tracks is two or higher in said range that denotes a presence of defect sectors continued up to immediately before said sector, and said sector is not included in said range, as presented in the environment of claim 9.

The prior art of record fails to disclose or suggest a hard drive and a method for registering a defect map that denotes the position of each defect sector among sectors formed on a recording disk comprising when the number of tracks is two or more is registered in said defect map avoiding the presence of two or more defect sector blocks in the same track, as presented in the environment of claims 13 and 16.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
